

The Ottawa LRT Song

Dan@MyUke

Sung to the tune of "The M.T.A. Song" by The Kingston Trio

$\frac{1}{2}$ A $\frac{1}{2}$ E7 A

Let me A tell you all the story of a D man named Johnny
On a A tragic and fateful E7 day
He took his A Presto card, kissed his D wife and family,
Went to $\frac{1}{2}$ A ride on the $\frac{1}{2}$ E7 L. R. A T.

Chorus

Well, did he A ever return? No, he D never returned,
And his A fate is still unE7learned (Poor old Johnny)
He may A ride forever 'neath the D Ottawa streets,
He's the $\frac{1}{2}$ A man who $\frac{1}{2}$ E7 never reAturned

Johnny A dropped his card at the D Bayview Station,
When he A changed to the Trillium E7 Line
The special A constable asked him, "Mister, D where's your card?"
And Johnny $\frac{1}{2}$ A couldn't get $\frac{1}{2}$ E7 off of that A train

Repeat Chorus

A All night long Johnny D rides through the station,
Cryin', A "What will become of E7 me?"
How can A I get off to see my D friends in Kanata
Or my $\frac{1}{2}$ A cousin in $\frac{1}{2}$ E7 Kitchissipi?"

Repeat Chorus

Johnny's A wife goes down to the D Tremblay Station
Every A day at a quarter past E7 two
And A through the open window she D hands Johnny a sandwich
As the 1/2A train comes 1/2E7 rumblin' A through

Repeat Chorus

Now, you A Ottawa citizens, don't you D think it's a scandal
How the A people have to pay and E7 pay?
Fight the A Presto card, use your D bike instead!
Get poor 1/2A Johnny off the 1/2E7 L. R. A T.

Or else he'll A never return. No, he'll D never returned,
And his A fate will remain unE7learned (Poor old Johnny)
He may A ride forever 'neath the D Ottawa streets,
He's the 1/2A man who 1/2E7 never reAturned
He's the 1/2A man who 1/2E7 never reAturned
He's the 1/2A man who 1/2E7 never reA↓turned
