

Did You Ever Have To Make Up Your Mind?

The Lovin' Spoonful

Did you G ever have to C make up your G mind C
And G pick up on C one and leave the G other be E7 hind
It's G not often D easy and C not often | kind
Did you D ever have to | make up your G mind? |

Did you G ever have to C finally de G cide C
And G say yes to C one and let the G other one E7 ride
There's G so many D changes and C tears you must | hide
Did you D ever have to | finally de G cide? |

Sometimes there's E7 one with big blue | eyes, | cute as a | bunny
With A7 hair down to | here, and | plenty of | money
And C just when you A7 think she's that G one in the E7 world
You D heart gets | stolen by some | mousey little | girl

And then you G know you better C make up your G mind C
And G pick up on C one and leave the G other be E7 hind
It's G not often D easy and C not often | kind
Did you D ever have to | make up your G mind? |

Instrumental

And then you G know you better C make up your G mind C
And G pick up on C one and leave the G other be E7 hind
It's G not often D easy and C not often | kind
Did you D ever have to | make up your G mind? |

Sometimes you E7 really dig a | girl the | moment you've | kissed her
And A7 then you get dis | tracted by | her older | sister
When C in walks her A7 father and G takes you in E7 line
And says, D "Better go | home, son, and | make up your | mind"

Then you G bet you'd better C finally de G cide C
And G say, "Yes" to C one and let the G other one E7 ride
There's G so many D changes and C tears you must | hide
Did you D ever have to | finally de G cide? G↓
