Fool On The Hill

The Beatles

D6

D6 Day after day, aEmlone on a hill
The D6 man with the foolish grin is keeping Em perfectly still
But ½Em7 nobody wants to ½A7 know him, they can ½D6 see that he's just a ½Bm7 fool
And ½Em7 he never gives an ½A7 answer

But the Dm fool on the hill sees the B♭ sun going down
And the C7 eyes in his head see the Dm world spinning round Dm7

D6 Well on the way, his Em head in a cloud
The D6 man of a thousand voices talking Em perfectly loud
But ½Em7 nobody ever ½A7 hears him, or the ½D6 sound he appears to ½Bm7 make
And ½Em7 he never seems to ½A7 notice

But the Dm fool on the hill sees the B♭ sun going down
And the C7 eyes in his head see the Dm world spinning round Dm7

D6 Em D6 Em

And ½Em7 nobody seems to ½A7 like him, they can ½D6 tell what he wants to ½Bm7 do
And ½Em7 he never shows his ½A7 feelings

But the Dm fool on the hill sees the B♭ sun going down
And the C7 eyes in his head see the Dm world spinning round, Dm7 ooh,

D6 Ooh, oh, oh, oh, Em ooh-oh, D6 round, round, round, round, Em round

And ½Em7 he never listens ½A7 to them, ½D6 he knows that they're the ½Bm7 fool
½Em7 They don't ½A7 like him

The Dm fool on the hill sees the B♭ sun going down
And the C7 eyes in his head see the Dm world spinning round Dm7

D6 Ooh, Em round, round, round, round
D6 Ooh, Em round, round, round, round D6↓
