

If I Die Young

The Band Perry

If I die G young, bury me in D satin
Lay me A down on a bed of D6 roses
Sink me in the G river, at D dawn
Send me A away with the words of a D6 love song
G Oh oh, D oh oh A A

Lord make me a G rainbow, I'll shine down on my D mother
She'll know I'm safe with A you when she stands under my D6 colors
Oh, G and life ain't always what you D think it ought to be, no
A Ain't even gray, but D6 she buries her baby

G The sharp knife D of a short A life D6
Well, G I've had D just enough A time |

If I die G young, bury me in D satin
Lay me A down on a bed of D6 roses
Sink me in the G river, at D dawn
Send me A away with the words of a D6 love song

G The sharp knife D of a short A life D6
Well, G I've had D just enough A time A

And I'll be wearing G white when I come D into your kingdom
I'm as A green as the ring on my D6 little cold finger
I've G never known the D lovin' of a man
But it A sure felt nice when he was D6 holding my hand
There's a G boy here in town, says he'll D love me forever
A Who would have thought for D6 ever could be severed by

G The sharp knife D of a short A life D6
Well, G I've had D just enough A time |

G D A D6 x2

So G put on your best, boys, and D I'll wear my pearls
A What I never did is D6 done

A penny for my G thoughts, oh no, D I'll sell 'em for a dollar
A They're worth so much more D6 after I'm a goner
And G maybe then you'll hear the D words I been singin'
A Funny, when you're dead how D6 people start listenin'

G D A D6 nc

If I die G young, bury me in D satin
Lay me A down on a bed of D6 roses
Sink me in the G river, at D dawn
Send me A away with the words of a D6 love song

G Oh oh, the D ballad of a dove A go with D6 peace and love
G Gather up your tears, D keep 'em in your pocket
A Save them for a time when you're D6 really gonna need them

Oh oh, G the sharp knife D of a short A life D6
Well, G I've had D just enough A time A

So G put on your best, boys, and D I'll wear my pearls
