The Logical Song

Supertramp

Chord diagrams: A7, Am, B♭, C, D7, Dm, Em7, F, G

Am | | |

Am When I was young, it seemed that ½F life was so Em7 wonderful
A G miracle, oh it was ½F beautiful, D7 magical
And all the Am birds in the trees, well they'd be ½F singing so Em7 happily
Oh, G joyfully, ½F playfully D7 watching me |

But then they Am sent me away to teach me ½F how to be Em7 sensible
G Logical, re½Fsponsible, D7 practical
And they Am showed me a world where I could ½F be so deEm7pendable
G Clinical, intel½Flectual, D7 cynical |

Strum "d-Du-udu"

There are C times when | all the world's a Am sleep
The | questions run too F deep, for | such a simple B♭ man |
Won't you C please, please | tell me what we've Am learned
I | know it sounds abFsurd, please | tell me who I B♭ am | | |

Now Am watch what you say or they'll be ½F calling you a Em7 radical
G Liberal, fa½Fnatical, D7 criminal
Won't you Am sign up your name, we'd like to ½F feel you're acEm7ceptable
ReGspectable, pre½Fsentable, a D7 vegetable |

Am ½F Em7 G ½F D7
Am ½F Em7 G ½F D7 |

Strum "d-Du-udu"

At C night, when | all the world's a Am sleep
The | questions run so F deep, for | such a simple B♭ man |
Won't you C please, please | tell me what we've Am learned
I | know it sounds abFsurd, but please | tell me who I B♭ am |
