Patricia the Stripper

Chris de Burgh

F↓ Dennis is a menace with his A7↓ 'anyone for tennis?'
and be Dm↓ seeching me to come and keep the score F7↓
And B♭↓ Maud say 'Oh Lord, I'm so B♭m6↓ terribly bored'
And ½F↓ I really can't ½Dm↓ stand it anymore C7↓

I'm going F out to dinner with a A7 gorgeous singer
To a Dm little place I found down by the F7 quay
Her B♭ name is Patricia, she B♭m6 calls herself Delicia and the ½F reason isn't ½Dm very hard to ½G7 see

½C7 She says F God made her a sinner just to keep A7 fat men thinner
As they Dm tumble down in heaps before her F7 feet
They B♭ hang around in groups like B♭m6 battle weary troops
One can ½F often see them ½Dm queue right down the ½G7 street
½C7 You see Pa B♭↓ tricia (or Delicia) not A7↓ only is a singer
She Dm↓ also removes all her ½G7↓ clothing ½C7↓
For Pa B♭ tricia is the C best stripper in ½F town ½Bb ½F

And ½C7 with a F swing of her hips she D7 started to strip
To Gm tremendous applause she C7 took off her drawers
And with a F lick of her lips she un D7 did all her clips
And threw it Gm all in the air and C everybody stared
And as the B♭ last piece of clothing A7 fell on the floor
The po F lice were bangin' on the D7 door
On a Gm Saturday night in C nineteen twenty-½F four ½Bb ½F ½C7

C7↓ But poor Pa F tricia was arrested and A7 everyone detested
The Dm manner in which she was ex F7 posed
B♭ Later on in court well B♭m6 everybody thought
A ½F summer run in ½Dm jail would be pro ½G7 posed
½C7 But the B♭↓ judge said 'Patricia, or A7↓ may I say Delicia
The Dm↓ facts of this case lie before G7↓ me

Case dismissed!
B♭ This girl was in her C working ½F clothes ½Bb ½F

And ½C7 with a F swing of her hips she D7 started to strip
To Gm tremendous applause she C7 took off her drawers
And with a F lick of her lips she un D7 did all her clips
And threw it Gm all in the air and C everybody stared
And as the B♭ last piece of clothing A7 fell on the floor
The po F lice were bangin' on the D7 door
On a Gm Saturday night in C nineteen twenty-F four D7
